

SNIPPETS

SPECIAL FEATURE: MOTUS O "PERSPECTIVES"

CIMTAN AND COOKE AQUACULTURE INC. ARE THE PROUD SPONSORS OF A UNIQUE SOIRÉE OF DANCE BY MOTUS O DANCE THEATRE AT THE IMPERIAL THEATRE IN SAINT JOHN, NEW BRUNSWICK, ON OCTOBER 14, 2011, AT 8 PM.

showers – that Motus O Dance Theatre create a piece on IMTA. Creativity was definitely flowing that night, and that's how IMTA was "integrated" as a piece in a new production that became "Perspectives" to "barrage your senses with a fusion of dance, video, music and lighting, illuminating an array of social and dimensional perspectives through comedy and pathos".

So, pencil this unique soirée into your agenda. I look forward to seeing you at the Imperial Theatre on Friday, October 14!

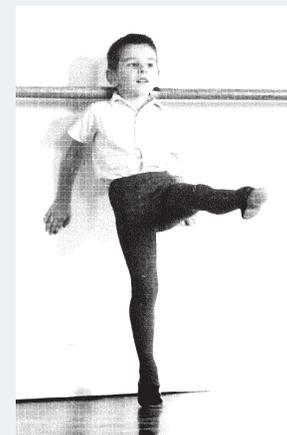

Thierry Chopin
Scientific Director
Canadian Integrated Multi-Trophic
Aquaculture Network

The performance of "Perspectives" will include the delightful piece "IMTA", which has become a hit for this most creative troupe.

Motus O Dance Theatre has performed several times at the Imperial Theatre. Over the years, the three co-artistic directors (Cynthia Croker, James Croker and Jack Langenhuisen) have become good friends with the Chopin family. In March 2005, Marine and Morgan, along with a number of other young dancers from the Saint John area, performed in Motus

O Dance Theatre's version of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream".

In the spring of 2007, Motus O Dance Theatre stopped at the Chopin's, while touring Atlantic Canada, and a wonderful and creative evening ensued. Motus O Dance Theatre was in the process of developing a new show that would address, through the art of dance, issues facing our present day society. Thierry Chopin proposed – the legend is that the vision matured during a few morning

Thierry Chopin

Was he not cute at 6 ½ years (without a beard!) attending the Dance School of Villefranche sur Saône in France?